BOOKS

Two great books, decades of history

Marietta and the surrounding Mid-Ohio Valley have a rich history well documented by generations of photographers.

More than 600 photos are presented in these two hard-back books showcasing the people and places that have added to the fabric of life in the area since the 1800s.

Around Town

This new 144-page book is a must-have for anyone that treasures the history of the area. Featuring scores of never published photos, the book puts a spotlight on many of the places that today exist only as memories.

Picturesque Past

Originally published in 2001, this 128-page updated edition is the perfect complement to “Around Town” and features hundreds of photo not published in that book.

High School Histories

PSHS50 A Pictorial History of the Semicentennial of Parkersburg South High School

A half century ago Parkersburg South was born out of a need to add a second high school to the growing community. The school has become one of the premiere schools in the state. “PSHS 50” takes a look at the people and events that helped start and shape the school over the five decades it has served families on the south side of the Little Kanawha River. Preorder your book today and save $5!

PHS100 - A Pictorial History of the Centennial of Parkersburg High School

A century ago, Parkersburg High School rose from a soggy field along Dudley Avenue to become one of the largest and most successful schools in West Virginia. “PHS 100” celebrates that century. The 128-page hard-back book features hundreds of photographs and dozens of stories about the people who are part of the rich history of the school.

Centennial Celebration: 100 years of Big Red Football

This 96-page hardback book showcases the first 100 years of Parkersburg High School football. Relive the championship years, the all-staters, the standouts and award winners. Learn about the coaches and the rivalries faced by the Big Reds over 10 decades. Published in 2005, “Centennial Celebration: 100 years of Big Red Football,” is a must have for any fan of Big Red football. Price includes shipping.
